For the attention of:

Lama Ole Nydahl

The UNESCO Association for inter cultural and inter religious dialogue in Malaga has established the annual prize for:

“ DIALOGUE, COEXISTENCE, PEACE “

for promoting the inherit values of dialogue among people as well as among institutions and organizations in all its aspects, with the purpose of achieving peace on a personal level and in the society in general.

We consider it a must to preserve, the values of tolerance, freedom, cultures and beliefs through DIALOGUE.

And DIALOGUE as a capability to get closer to each other, to listen to each other, to understand each other, to create bonds, which connect us and give us the possibility to agree and generate freedom, coexistence and peace.

This year 2015, we have awarded the price to:

1. His Holiness the Pope Francisco I for his sincere dialoguc with the poor in particular, and with people, cultures and beliefs in general, to reach the truth as the only way to PEACE.
2. Her Highness Queen Sofia of Spain and Greece
for her profound dialoguc from the Kingdom with people, cultures and national and international institutions, for the well being of people, institutions and nations.
3. Lama Ole and Hannah NYDAHL
Lamas of the Karma Kagyu tradition Diamond Way, of the 16th and 17th Karmapas, for their contribution to freedom, of speech, of mind, of belief, of the people and internal compassion in the search for PEACE and well being.

The prizes will be given at the ceremony, taking place on Saturday, June 13th 2015, in connection with the opening of the Parliament of Religions, which will be inaugurated that same day in Malaga, as a symbol and reality of DIALOGUE of cultures and beliefs towards PEACE.

We hereby confirm this by signing below on February 11th 2015 in Malaga, Spain.
